Subject: Monthly Report to Commission – November 2010

PERSONNEL CHANGES:

Sergeant Doug Brown retired November 30, 2010 after 35 years of law enforcement service to the community. His position is currently vacant until a replacement sergeant is selected from the list of available candidates.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH: Deputy Michael Hencken

On September 26, 2010 Deputy Hencken was on routine patrol throughout the Silver Shores neighborhood. Around midnight, he observed several suspicious persons in the neighborhood. Upon setting up surveillance on them, Deputy Hencken realized that they were breaking into vehicles. The suspects attempted to flee upon confrontation.

Deputy Hencken quickly notified other LBTS patrol units and set up a containment perimeter. With the assistance of BSO Aviation and K-9 deputies, all three suspects were quickly located and apprehended as a result of Deputy Hencken's exemplary team work and coordination.

Due to Deputy Hencken's keen observation skills and familiarity with his patrol zone, he was able to apprehend these felons before more residents were victimized. Deputy Hencken's actions embody the highest standards of professional law enforcement.
