

Proclamation

Issued by the Governing Body of the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Florida

WHEREAS, the American Ambulance Association, or "AAA," is the national trade organization for the public and private medical transportation industry in the United States, and;

WHEREAS, members of the AAA employ several hundred thousand paramedics and emergency medical technicians, and;

WHEREAS, the AAA names only about 100 "Stars of Life" nationwide each year, and;

WHEREAS, the Star of Life program has become the nation's most prestigious recognition for front-line ambulance personnel, and;

WHEREAS, Mr. Donald Anderson, a paramedic supervisor who serves in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, has received the national title, "Star of Life" for 2011 the highest recognition within the industry, and;

THEREFORE, I, Roseann Minnet as Mayor of the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Florida, to celebrate and commemorate the high distinction Mr. Anderson has brought to the Town, do hereby proclaim April 27, 2011 as

AMR Paramedic Donald Anderson Day

The Town Commission congratulates and commends Mr. Anderson for earning the national title, "Star of Life" from the American Ambulance Association, and express appreciation to Mr. Anderson for his dedication to excellence.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and caused this seal to be affixed

_____
Mayor Roseann Minnet

April 27, 2011

Attest: _____
Town Clerk June White, CMC