Subject: Monthly Report to Commission – March 2011

PERSONNEL CHANGES:

Deputy Terry Kyle retired March 23rd after 26 years of law enforcement service with the Broward County Sheriff's Office. Replacement deputies are currently being evaluated.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH: Deputy Michael Hencken & Deputy Lou Kattou

On February 28, 2011, Deputy Kattou and Deputy Hencken responded to a traffic crash in the area of Silver Shores. Upon arrival, they noticed that the vehicle was unoccupied. They determined through investigative efforts that the driver of the vehicle had fled the area.

While conducting a search of the area for the driver, they were able to locate a suspicious vehicle and establish that the suspect's associate was trying to assist the suspect in fleeing the area. Although the suspect claimed that the crashed vehicle was his, the investigation revealed that the vehicle had just been stolen from a town resident.

A subsequent search of the suspect's residence in town led to the recovery of additional property stolen from other town residents.

Not only did their actions protect the residents of Lauderdale-by-the-Sea from these habitual offenders, their actions embody the highest standards of professional law enforcement.
