FY2011 DESIGNATED HIGH PRIORITY ITEM

SUBJECT TITLE: Selection of a Representative to the Emergency Medical Services Review Committee (EMSRC)

EXPLANATION: In 2008, when AMR and VFD became the fire and EMS providers, the Commission requested that an oversight committee be established. However, HIPPA restrictions disallow a public oversight committee; the state of Florida established the EMSRC process, protected under HIPPA privacy laws.

Dr. Nelson and Chief Brooke Liddle of AMR suggested that a Commissioner be appointed, in 6 month increments, to attend their quarterly EMSRC meetings as an alternative to an oversight committee. At the November 25, 2008 Commission meeting the Commission chose to appoint a new representative every 3 months.

Vice Mayor McIntee was appointed as the first representative, followed by Commissioner Clotey in April 2009, and Commissioner Vincent in September 2010. The next EMSRC meeting has not yet been scheduled.

Chief Brooke Liddle has indicated that the process could be adapted to whatever worked best for the Commission. Would the Commission prefer to continue appointing representatives on a quarterly basis, every 6 month basis, or once a year?

EXPECTED OUTCOME: Commission decision to appoint a representative to the EMSRC on a quarterly basis, every 6 months, or annually
