

Proclamation

Issued by the Governing Body of the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Florida

WHEREAS, Elizabeth "Betty" Pagano retired to the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea from Delmar, New York, in 1964, with her husband Bill; and

WHEREAS, Betty Pagano celebrated her 104th birthday and the Town wishes to honor her for her great accomplishments, recognizing that her history takes her through so many facets of our great Nation; and

WHEREAS, Betty Pagano always maintains a smile that she is quick to share, and has earned the respect of all she comes into contact with, as well as the love and affection of a host of friends and family members; and

WHEREAS, Betty Pagano has shown many talents throughout her life - from banking during World War II, to ballroom dancing and traveling which she so enjoyed sharing with Bill - rumors indicating that she even created her own beautiful gowns; and

WHEREAS, Betty Pagano is a remarkable woman and has proven to be a great neighbor to many; and

WHEREAS, Betty Pagano is an inspiration to all who know her and we - the Mayor, Town Commission, and staff, are pleased to join her and extend our best wishes on this momentous occasion.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rosanna Mianet, as Mayor of the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea, Florida, do hereby proclaim

July 12, 2010 as Elizabeth "Betty" Pagano Day

and hereby offer her our best wishes for good health and happiness.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and caused this and to be attested

Rosanna Mianet, Mayor

Attest:

June White, Town Clerk

Date: July 12, 2010