SUBJECT TITLE: Any new expenditure that exceeds ten percent of the town's operating budget should be approved by the residents in a referendum vote. Any proposed cost increases by current services providers that exceed $400,000 should also be approved by residents. Planned expenditures that will be paid out of specially allocated reserve funds (fire trucks, sewers etc.) will be excluded from this requirement.

EXPLANATION: All proposed bond issues and other major non emergency expenditures (with the above stated exceptions) will be proved by referendum vote. In these difficult economic times, the taxpayers should have the final say in these matters.
