Family Fun Week features skim board lessons, snorkeling, a fishing contest, treasure hunt, scuba intro lessons jewelry party, cooking and dance lessons, free outdoor movies, chocolate-making, a free concert, two free outdoor movies, a sand-castle contest and an exciting talent competition.

"It's going to be an exciting week of activities for parents and their children right by the ocean," said Family Fun Week Coordinator Pat Himelberger. "We're expecting a good turnout and seeing a lot of happy faces around the Town."

Family Fun Week is the result of a joint effort between the Town and Lauderdale-By-The-Sea hotel owners, retailers and restaurant owners to offer tourists and area residents a great chance to enjoy the Town's laidback seaside ambiance.
