CONDITIONAL USE - SIGN

In accordance with the Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea Unified Land Development Regulations Section 30-126 and Section 30-510(b)(2)–Conditional Use-Sign, the following is a list of the required documentation required for development approval of a Conditional Use-Sign application.

Items for Initial Submittal:

- Fee for Conditional Use-Sign + Deposit & Deposit for Architectural Review (See Fee Schedule – updated once a year)
- A completed Development Application signed and notarized for a Conditional Use – Sign and Architectural Review
- A boundary survey (if applicable)
- Two (2) hard copies of architectural elevations with the applicable dimensions
- If required, a site plan drawn to scale. On the plans, include required and proposed setbacks and landscape specifications
- Photographs of existing signage and signs for adjacent tenants (as applicable)
- Photographs of current conditions of the project area and overall site
- Label and photograph adjacent properties from the north, south, east and west
- Digital copies of the above referenced documents – via email, disk or thumb drive

Once the Applicant has been approved for Preliminary Architectural Review, the Applicant may proceed and apply for Final Review.

Items for Final Review Submittal:

- Additional fee for Final Review (discuss cost recovery with Town Planner)
- The exterior colors for all improvements which include color swatches, samples and manufacturer colors and specifications. All colors need to be identified as to the location on the building, sign or other improvement
- Cut sheet for light fixtures (if applicable)
- Photometric plan (if applicable)

- Roof plan (if applicable)
- A letter of authorization provided by the owner of the subject property indicating approval of specific color palette for signage (maximum of 3 colors may be used for ALL building signage)
- Completion of the Architectural Review Table – see attached
- Upon resubmittal of the plans, include a letter response to the Town comment. This is done by providing the comment received from the Town followed by a response by the applicant
- Digital copies of the above referenced documents – via email, disk or thumb drive
